

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

KATHYE FETSKO PETRIE is a freelance writer, the author of the children's picture book, Flying Jack and the editor/publisher and founder of Local LIT (www.locallit.com), an online publication of literary events and resources in the Philadelphia area. Petrie's publication credits include The Philadelphia Inquirer, Main Line Today magazine, The Writer and Parents Express. Her work is featured in Best New Writing 2007 and has been anthologized in Progressions: Readings for Writers, Betsy Hilbert, ed. (W.W. Norton, 1998). She is a former editor of PSA Journal, the monthly magazine of The Photographic Society of America, and a past recipient of a Dow Jones-Ottoway newspaper internship. Petrie holds a degree in both magazine journalism and English from Syracuse University. She specializes in writing about books and literary topics, writers and writing, and her work has led her to meet many top writers (John Irving, Frank McCourt, Kurt Vonnegut) and interview literary giants such as Pulitzer-prize winning author William Styron. She is at present working on three more children's picture books and two adult non-fiction books. Petrie lives in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, and is married to the award-winning Philadelphia Flower Show designer and "garden artist" Michael Petrie. They have three sons.
