

ABOUT THE BOOK

Ever since he saw his first plane, Flying Jack has wanted to fly. But each time he gets close to his dream, something happens.

"Someday I'll fly," he says.

But will he?

Flying Jack is a heartwarming story about family love, faith and generosity, told in pictures and words rich with charm, humor and details which reflect one man's passion for flight and his unique personality. Readers will love this tale of a lifetime which illuminates many aspects of American aviation history.

" Flying Jack's story has in it all the romance and adventure of the early flying days. It shows, too, how much you can accomplish with the help of people who love you, and how important it is, all your life, to hold on to your dreams. "

— Reeve Lindbergh, daughter of aviators and writers Charles and Anne Morrow Lindbergh

Flying Jack
by Kathye Fetsko Petrie

$15.95

HARDCOVER

Age Level: 03-UP ISBN: 1563979713 Author: Petrie, Kathye Fetsko Foreword: Lindbergh, Reeve
Illustrator: Mahoney, Paula J. Publisher: Boyds Mills Press Publication Date: September 2003
Binding: Hardcover Language: English Illustrations: Color and b&w Pages: 32 Children's Book Type: Picture

Boyds Mills Press, 815 Church Street, Honesdale, PA 18431, Tel. 570-253-1166 Fax: 570-253-0179

www.boydsmillspress.com

Author website: www.kathyfetskopetrie.com

Also see www.localit.com/abouttheeditor.html